About

I don't just generate visuals, I direct them.

As a freelance Motion Designer and Art Director, I combine cinematic composition with multi-model AI workflows to build brand campaigns that feel handcrafted, not generated. My work is the antidote to sterile, templated AI content.

I handle the full creative pipeline: concept development, AI generation, motion design, and final post-production polish. No hand-off delays, no miscommunication between teams.

I work with brands and agencies in F&B, luxury, sustainability and consumer goods, any brief that needs strong visual identity and emotional weight.

What I deliver:

- High-impact campaign videos for product launches and seasonal activations
- Scroll-stopping loops for social and DOOH
- Concept art and moodboards for rapid visual exploration

Tools: VEO · Kling · Seedance · Midjourney · After Effects · Photoshop

Based in Greece. Available worldwide.

Let's build something that doesn't look like everything else.
